Dear Mr. Weisberg:

Forgive me for not having returned your ~~story~~ articles sooner. I kept expecting to go to Maryland, and I also was under the impression that you would be coming up to these parts.

Thank you for sending me the recipes. Yours sounds like quite a project and you seem to be having fun along with your business. I will have to try your prize recipe some day although I am not sure that I have the equipment.

Perhaps you will write an article that I can handle for you some day.

Sincerely,

Toni Strassman
